

e-learning

certificate

Tian Houston

has successfully completed the course

Paediatric First Aid

A pass was achieved on the following modules:

- Roles and responsibilities of a paediatric first-aider
- Assessing an emergency situation
- Managing an infant or child who is unresponsive
- Recognising and assisting an infant or child who is choking
- Recognising and assisting an infant or child with external bleeding and shock
- Managing an infant or child with a minor injury
- Conducting a secondary survey
- An infant or a child with a suspected bone fracture
- An infant or a child with suspected head, neck or back injury
- An infant or a child with a condition that affects the ears, eyes and nose
- An infant or a child with an acute medical condition or sudden illness
- An infant or a child experiencing the effects of extreme heat or cold
- An infant or child who has sustained an electric shock
- An infant or a child with burns or scalds
- An infant or a child who has been poisoned

Date Completed: 24/04/23

Date Printed: 24/04/23

